The Wisconsin International Law Journal is pleased to announce its annual symposium:

Creation of International Law: Exploring the International Law Components of Peace

April 4-5, 2013, UW Law School

Approved for 16 hours of CLE Credit for Wisconsin Attorneys.

The symposium will bring women scholars from around the world together to promote collaboration and support for women engaged in public international law. This year’s symposium is on the theme ‘International Peace.’ It seeks to continue and expand the network of women scholars and practitioners that was launched in 2009 in Norway to support their engagement in public international law.

Keynote Speakers:

Dean Penelope Andrews, Albany Law School
Professor Christine Chinkin, London School of Economics
With a video message by Professor Hillary Charlesworth, Australia National University

Panels:

- “Negative Peace - The Role of the UN Security Council, the Prohibition of the Use of Force, Humanitarian Intervention & Counter-Terrorism”
- “Post Conflict Positive Peace - Building from a Gender Perspective”
- “Positive Peace”
- “Reflection on the Right to Peace and Teaching”
- “The Role of Dispute Resolution Regimes in Relation to Peace”
- “Regulation of Arms, Disarmament, Economic Development, and Investment”
- “Protection of the Environment, Access to Resources and Peace”

Register and learn more at law.wisc.edu/wilj

Location:

Rooms 2260 (Fri.) and 3250 (Sat.), University of Wisconsin Law School
975 Bascom Mall, Madison WI 53706

Sponsors:

UW Law School
Global Legal Studies Center
East Asian Legal Studies Center
Center for German and European Studies
European Union Center of Excellence
Center for European Studies
Department of Public and International Law, University of Oslo, Norway
Institute for Legal Studies
Lectures Committee and Kemper K. Knapp Bequest Fund
Wisconsin Experience Grant

Questions? Please contact
Justin Regan: regan3@wisc.edu
Kenny Ho: ktho3@wisc.edu